Regularization of the services of the Prohibition Sub-Inspectors.

* 297 Q.—SRI M. DHARMALINGAM : Will the Hon the Minister for Prohibition be pleased to state—

(a) whether the clerks working in the Excise Department were recruited as Prohibition Sub-Inspectors at the time of the introduction of the Prohibition Act and after;

(b) if so, how many;

(c) in how many of those cases, their services as Prohibition Sub-Inspectors were regularized and in how many cases they were not so regularized;

(d) the reasons why they were not regularized; and

(e) whether the Government have any proposal to regularize their services?

THE HON. SRIMATHI JOTHI VENCATACHELLUM :—" (a) Yes, Sir, clerks working in the Excise Department were being recruited as Sub-Inspectors before and after the introduction of prohibition.

" (b) Forty clerks so recruited since 1947 are now working as Sub-Inspectors in the residuary State.

"(c) In two cases the appointments were regularized, and the appointments of others were not regularized.

" (d) From 1937 to 1946, there was no direct recruitment of Sub-Inspectors. All vacancies which arose during this period were filled by appointment by transfer of the clerks in the Excise department. With the re-introduction of Prohibition in 1946, direct recruitment of Sub-Inspectors was re-introduced. Further there was at that time a grave shortage of
